Dear Alexandra Davis,

On behalf of the United Nations Foundation, I would like to extend an invitation to you to participate in an upcoming learning trip to United Nations Headquarters in New York on Thursday, April 19 – Friday, April 20.

If you are unfamiliar, the UN Foundation is a public charity that links the UN's work with others around the world, mobilizing the energy and expertise of policymakers, businesses, and NGOs to help the UN tackle global challenges. As part of our mission, we organize several trips per year to UN Headquarters for Members of Congress and staff, providing an opportunity to learn about the UN's work firsthand and ask questions about a wide range of policy initiatives

The upcoming trip will support the efforts of Girl Up to advance gender equality and will brief Hill staffers on the topic of access to safe environments for girls in order to decrease school dropout rates and gender-based violence, and the ambitions of the United Nations to empower girls through the Sustainable Development Goals framework.

The basic format of the trip is as follows: the delegation will take the train to New York on Thursday afternoon for a working dinner with a UN speaker. On Friday, we will participate in a series of meetings at the U.S. Mission to the UN and UN Headquarters, where we will be briefed by senior officials from an assortment of UN agencies such as UNHCR, UN Women, UNODC and UNICEF. We will close the day with a working lunch with one last UN speaker, after which you will depart for DC on an afternoon train.

The UN Foundation will arrange all transportation and accommodations, including one night's hotel stay, and ensure they comply with all House/Senate ethics guidelines. If you are interested in participating, please let us know by Tuesday, March 13.

UNITED NATIONS FOUNDATION

We hope you will take this opportunity to learn more about how the United Nations and look forward to your reply.

Sincerely yours,

Peter Yeo

Senior Vice President, Public Policy and Advocacy
